Two Seminars in Theology and Philosophy of Religion

GUILT AND FORGIVENESS

Monday 27th August, 3.30 – 5.00pm

In this lecture, I try to show that, in some cases of grave evil, repentance and making amends are not sufficient for the removal of guilt, and that reconciliation may be morally impermissible, whatever the case as regards forgiveness.

SUFFERING AND FLOURISHING

Wednesday 29th August, 3.30 – 5.00pm

Christian tradition has held that those who endure serious suffering are not the pitiable losers of life but rather are those specially loved by God. In this lecture, I will consider what can explain the attitude towards suffering that sees suffering as part of flourishing.

PROFESSOR ELEONORE STUMP

Professor Stump is Robert J. Henle Professor of Philosophy at Saint Louis University, Missouri and Professorial Fellow at Australian Catholic University.

She has published extensively in philosophy of religion, contemporary metaphysics, and medieval philosophy and has delivered the Gifford Lectures (Aberdeen, 2003), the Wilde lectures (Oxford, 2006), and the Stewart lectures (Princeton, 2009). She will deliver the Stanton Lectures (Cambridge) in 2018.

She is past president of the Society of Christian Philosophers, the American Catholic Philosophical Association, and the American Philosophical Association, Central Division; and she is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.
